Producers or production companies can send their unfinished short film NOW to Maya Vision International along with a completed application form. The closing date is 14th December 2007.

If you don't have a rough cut by then, don't worry as the Completion Fund has expanded to 2 calls per year allowing up to 14 short films to be completed in a year. The second call will open in March and close in April 08.

Please pass the news on to all your film-making friends. We'd love to receive a bumper crop of exciting new films.

You are very welcome to call for more details, but please read the guidelines first!
